“The best way to learn German is in Germany. That is why Jade University of Applied Sciences is offering the “Seaside Summer Course in German” in the 26th consecutive year at the campus in Wilhelmshaven from July 29th to August 23rd 2024.

Participants live in Wilhelmshaven for a 4-week period in which they improve their language skills in small groups overseen by qualified teachers. Each participant receives a certificate at the end of the course.

Five hours of lessons take place in small groups each morning. The afternoons are used to put theory into practice. Placement tests are first conducted in order to find the right course for each participant. It is our goal to train the participants’ communicative skills: everyday conversations are practiced to train pronunciation, improve listening skills and use correct grammar. Various cultural topics are worked out in projects or in presentations. More information about the German Summer Course, costs, impressions from the last year and registration you can find under the following webpage: <https://www.jade-hs.de/en/international/international-office/language-and-culture/german-as-foreign-language/learning-german-in-germany/>
